

Supplier Diversity

Leggett & Platt, Incorporated believes that our corporation and communities benefit from providing equal opportunities for diverse business enterprises to compete for Leggett & Platt, Incorporated business. Our program provides companies owned and operated by minorities, women, veterans, people with disabilities, small businesses, and certain other persons, as well as businesses located in Historically Underutilized Business Zones, equal opportunities to work with us, while growing their business.

Leggett & Platt, Incorporated looks for certified diverse suppliers who can provide innovative, competitively priced goods and services that meet high quality standards, foster community and economic development, and enhance our ability to deliver shareholder value. Certification requirements may vary depending on customer or contract specifications.

To help enhance the Leggett & Platt, Incorporated Supplier Diversity program, we work with various business entities. This relationship helps build networking opportunities and stronger ties with those who would like to do business with Leggett & Platt, Incorporated.

If you would like further information regarding becoming a diversity supplier to Leggett & Platt, Incorporated please contact supplierdiversity@leggett.com.