LEGGETT & PLATT HOME FURNITURE TO DISPLAY ADVANCED PRODUCTS AND CAPABILITIES AT INTERZUM 2025

COLOGNE, GERMANY, May 20, 2025 – Leggett & Platt Home Furniture, a division of Leggett & Platt, will take part in Interzum 2025, May 20-23, showcasing several innovative products and capabilities. On display for attendees to view include:

EnVisiOn™ – Sleek-profile motion furniture mechanism offering a variety of styling options and a unique, horizontal footrest deployment with sturdy support in a laptop position.

Xtreme™ HL – The most compact power motion mechanism on the market – offering 7" (18 cm) of leg height with no frame sideview and an even longer footrest extension than previous models.

Suprema® Pro PM – An off-the-floor True Wall Hugger® mechanism that offers total wall proximity while reducing the gap between the lumbar pillow and seat cushion when in full recline. Relax like a Pro!

Suprema® Pro CloudZero® – An off-the-floor Wall Hugger® mechanism that offers closer wall proximity, reduces the gap between the lumbar pillow and seat cushion in full recline, and gives users a zero-gravity feel in its seating and full-recline positions. Relax like a Pro!

Piro – A motion furniture mechanism that offers a contemporary design with hidden ottoman linkage to provide a sleek, modern appearance. The Piro Compact Glider is the newest addition to the Piro line – providing smooth gliding function to the latest pedestal-based mechanisms.

The Glider Story – A complete range of gliding products that includes the famous ST Glider with swivel base and unique weight capacity (350 lbs. / 158 kg); all-new ST Glider CloudZero™ with an enhanced, near-zero-gravity gliding experience; and Yuma Glider two-motor mechanism that offers independent backrest and footrest control, as well as CloudZero feature in full recline.

Europia™ SL Outdoor – An incredibly compact, high-leg outdoor reclining mechanism featuring a hidden footrest that tucks under the seat for a stationary look.

1010 Club Glider Base – An outdoor glider base with versatile styling capabilities that allows patio furniture to glide smoothly despite outdoor elements.
