Introduction

This policy has been established in compliance with Regulation 191/11, “Integrated Accessibility Standards” (“Regulation”) under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005. These standards are developed to break down barriers and increase accessibility for persons with disabilities in the areas of information and communications and employment. This policy aligns with Leggett & Platt Canada’s and its subsidiaries’ commitment to treat all persons in a way that respects their dignity and independence.

Commitment

Leggett & Platt Canada Co. and its subsidiaries (collectively “Leggett & Platt Canada”) are committed to treating all employees in a way that allows them to maintain their dignity and independence. We believe in integration and equal opportunity. We are committed to meeting the needs of persons with disabilities in a timely manner and will do so by preventing and removing barriers to accessibility and meeting accessibility requirements in accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act. This policy will be implemented in accordance with the time frames established by the Regulation.

Multi-Year Accessibility Plan

Leggett & Platt Canada will develop, maintain, and document a Multi-Year Accessibility Plan outlining the company’s strategy to prevent and remove barriers from its workplace and to improve opportunities for persons with disabilities. The Multi-Year Accessibility Plan will be reviewed and updated at least once every five years and posted on Leggett & Platt Canada’s website. Upon request, Leggett & Platt Canada will provide a copy of the Multi-Year Accessibility Plan in an accessible format.

Training Employees

Leggett & Platt Canada will ensure that training is provided on the requirements of the accessibility standards referred to in the Integrated Accessibility Standards Regulation and continue to provide training on the Human Rights Code as it pertains to persons with disabilities to:

- all our Personnel.
- all persons who participate in developing Leggett & Platt Canada’s policies; and,
- all other persons who provide goods, services, or facilities on behalf of Leggett & Platt Canada.
The training will be appropriate to the duties of the employees. New Personnel and such other persons will be trained as soon as practicable. Training will be also provided when any changes are made to Leggett & Platt Canada’s accessibility policies. Leggett & Platt Canada will keep a record of the training it provides.

INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS STANDARDS

Feedback
Leggett & Platt Canada will continue to ensure that its process for receiving and responding to feedback is accessible to persons with disabilities by providing, or arranging for the provision of, accessible formats and communications supports, upon request.

Accessible Formats and Communication Support
Upon request, Leggett & Platt Canada will provide, or arrange for the provision of, accessible formats and communication supports for persons with disabilities in a timely manner, considering the person’s accessibility needs due to disability.

Leggett & Platt Canada will consult with the person making the request in determining the suitability of an accessible format or communication support.

Leggett & Platt Canada will also notify the public about the availability of accessible formats and communication supports.

Accessible Websites and Web Content
Leggett & Platt Canada will ensure that our Internet websites, including web content, conform to the World Wide Web Consortium Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.0 – Level AA except where this is impracticable.

EMPLOYMENT STANDARDS

Recruitment, Assessment or Selection Process
Leggett & Platt Canada will notify its Employees and the public about the availability of accommodation for applicants with disabilities in its recruitment process.
Leggett & Platt Canada will notify job applicants when they are individually selected to participate further in an assessment or selection process that accommodations are available upon request in relation to the materials or processes to be used.

If a selected applicant requests an accommodation, Leggett & Platt Canada will consult with the applicant and provide, or arrange for the provision of, a suitable accommodation in a manner that considers the applicant’s accessibility needs due to disability.

Notice to Successful Applicants

When making offers of employment, Leggett & Platt Canada will notify the successful applicant of its policies for accommodating Employees with disabilities.

Informing Employees of Support

Leggett & Platt Canada will continue to inform its Employees of its policies (and any updates to those policies) used to support employees with disabilities, including policies on the provision of job accommodations that consider an employee’s accessibility needs due to disability. This information will be provided to new employees as soon as is practicable after commencing employment.

Accessible Formats and Communication Supports for Employees

Upon the request of an employee with a disability, Leggett & Platt Canada will consult with the employee to provide, or arrange for the provision of, accessible formats and communication supports for information that is needed to perform his/her job, and information that is generally available to other employees. In determining the suitability of an accessible format or communication support, Leggett & Platt Canada will consult with the employee making the request.

Workplace Emergency Response Information

Leggett & Platt Canada will provide individualized workplace emergency response information to Employees who have a disability, if the disability is such that the individualized information is necessary, and if Leggett & Platt Canada is aware of the need for accommodation due to the employee’s disability. Leggett & Platt Canada will provide this information as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the need for accommodation.
Where the employee requires assistance, Leggett & Platt Canada will, with the consent of the employee, provide the workplace emergency response information to the person designated by Leggett & Platt Canada to provide assistance to the employee.

Leggett & Platt Canada will review the individualized workplace emergency response information when the employee moves to a different location in the organization, when the employee’s overall accommodations needs, or plans are reviewed.

Documented Individual Accommodation Plans

Leggett & Platt Canada will maintain a written process for the development of documented individual accommodation plans for employees with disabilities.

If requested, information regarding accessible formats and communications supports provided will also be included in individual accommodation plans.

In addition, the plans will include individualized workplace emergency response information (where required) and will identify any other accommodation that is to be provided.

Return to Work Process

Leggett & Platt Canada maintains a documented return to work process for its employees who have been absent from work due to a disability and who require disability-related accommodations to return to work.

The return-to-work process outlines the steps Leggett & Platt Canada will take to facilitate the return to work and will include documented individual accommodation plans as part of the process.

This return-to-work process will not replace or override any other return to work process created by or under any other statute (e.g., the Ontario Workplace Safety Insurance Act, 1997).

Performance Management, Career Development and Advancement, and Redeployment

Leggett & Platt Canada will consider the accessibility needs of employees with disabilities, as well as individual accommodation plans, when conducting performance management, providing career development and advancement to employees, or when redeploying employees.

Questions about this policy
This Integrated Accessibility Standards Policy and Multi-Year Plan exists to ensure accessible service excellence to Customers and Employees with disabilities. Enquiries, questions, feedback, or complaints regarding this policy may be communicated to Leggett & Platt Canada by email, telephone, in writing or in person to:
